

Nordic Summer University

European Humanities
University

International Relations and Human Rights

March 11-13 2016, Tallinn

Program for the Winter Session – Special Focus: Human rights and Migration

Friday the 11th of March
15.30-16.00	Welcome
16.00-16.20	Jean Pierre Cléro, Professor, University of Rouen, France: May Bentham's critic of Human Rights be applied to a contemporary expression of them?
16.20-16.40	Asger Sørensen, Associate Professor, Aarhus University, Denmark: Kant's Toward Perpetual Peace.
16.40-17.10	Discussion Chair: Oleg Bresky
17.10-17.25	Pause Coffee + Cake
17.25-17.45	Adam Diderichsen, Associate Professor, Danish National Police College, Denmark : Ius Praedicandi and Cosmopolitanism as an Imperial Strategy.
17.45-17.55	Claudio Corradetti, Postdoctoral Fellow, Pluricourts, Oslo, Norway: The contemporary significance of Kant's cosmopolitan rights and its importance for a cosmopolitan constitution.
17.55-18.25	Discussion Chair: Oleg Bresky
19.00	Dinner
Saturday the 12th of March
09.00-9.30	Keynote: Yves Charles Zarka, Professor, University of Sorbonne, Descartes, Paris, France: Cosmopolitanism and politics: the foreigner, the migrant, the refugee, the terrorist.
9.30-10.00	Questions to keynote Chair: Olga Breskaya
10.00-10.15	Pause Coffee
10.15-10.35	Lars Erslev Andersen, Senior Research Fellow, DIIS, Denmark: Migration, Security, and the Mediterranean Sea: European Security Discourse between the end of the Cold War and 9/11. A Historical Note to the current situation.
10.35-10.55	Emnet Berhanu Gebre, Ph.D. Student, University of Toulouse, France: Human Rights facing Terrorism: A Lose-Lose Situation?
10.55-11.25	Discussion Chair: Olga Breskaya
11.25-11.45	Drago Župarić-Iljić, Assistant, Institute for Migration and Ethnic Studies, Zagreb, Croatia: Public opinion on actual refugees and migrants flows in the light of recent events.

11.45-12.05	Katarzyna Sadowa, Ph.D. Student, University of Wroclaw, Poland: Migration and the risk of 'honour' violences increase.
12.05-12.35	Discussion Chair: Olga Breskaya
12.35-13.45	Lunch
13.45-14.05	Maxim Timofeev, Associate Professor, EHU, Lithuania: Drawing Lines in the Sand: The ECHR Scrutiny Over Immigration Policies
14.05-14.25	Athanasia Petropoulou, Lawyer ECHR, Strasbourg, France: Shadows of Cosmopolitanism in the Case law of the European Court of Human Rights
14.25-14.55	Discussion Chair: Mogens Chrom Jacobsen
14.55-15.10	Pause, Coffee + Cake
15.10-15.30	Iryna Ivankiv, National Project Officer, OSCE Project Co-ordinator in Ukraine: Visa Restrictions as an Obstacle for International Development
16.30-16.50	Camille de Vulpillières, Ph.D. Student, University of Nanterre, France: Travellers, refugees, visa-applicants: the Rule of law in the light of hospitality
16.50-17.20	Discussion Chair: Mogens Chrom Jacobsen
17.20-17.40	Olga Breskaya, Associate Professor, EHU: The attitudes of Belarusian youth towards the right of refugees.
17.40-18.00	Barbara Gornik, Assistant, University of Primorska, Slovenia: Migration, Human Rights and Nationalism: Implications Revealed through Slovenian Public Opinion.
18.30-19.00	Discussion Chair: Mogens Chrom Jacobsen
20.00	Festive dinner
Sunday the 13th of March
09.00-09.20	Patrick Hein, Associate Professor, Meiji University, Japan: Riding with the devils: Chinese and Russian human rights voting behavior in the UN Security Council and the Geneva Human Rights Council.
09.20-09.40	Anna Sergeichik, Georgia Baryshnikov, Cheshyk Kseniya, Students at EHU: Whose responsibility to protect "environmental" refugees?
09.40-10.10	Discussion Chair: Abel Polese
10.10-10.25	Pause Coffee
10.25-10.45	Enver Ethemer, EU Specialist at TRNC Presidency, Nicosia, Cypres : Human Rights and Gender in European Union: A Socio Legal Perspective of Constitutionalisation of European Union
10.45-11.05	Aleksandra Spsychalska, Ph.D. Student, University of Wroclaw, Poland: The obligation to prevent the crime of genocide: utopia or attainable plan?
11.05-11.35	Discussion Chair: Abel Polese
11.35-11.45	Oleg Bresky, Professor, EHU: Multy-level citizenship in the internal and external policy in the Eastern Europe.
11.45-12.05	Mogens Chrom Jacobsen, Coordinator, NSU: Citizenship, Open Borders and Human Rights.
12.05-12.35	Discussion Chair: Abel Polese
12.35-13.45	Lunch
	Goodbye