

Participants and papers Feminist Philosophy, Fårö 2018

1. Trine Antonsen. Paper. Feminist conception of reconciliation/redemption for living a good life as a women in a society so influenced by patriarchal norms/values/ideals etc. I would be happy to contribute with a presentation on this topic, but also to participate without giving a presentation
2. Sameema Zahra. Paper. Hegel and Beauvoir: Critiquing the Master-Slave Dialectic
3. Anna Engstam. Paper. What possibilities to formulate feminist critique from an Arendtian point of view do I see? "[T]hinking necessarily uses concepts with roots in the past" - that is something that Arendt could have said. Further more, she related different modes of acting to different spheres (or contexts). This enable an interesting form of critique.
4. Nathalie Ek Paper The Promise of Definition and the (so called) Problem of Diversity - A critical exploration of feminist metaphysics
5. Agata Stepień. Paper. Women artists and their bodies in actual art scene
6. Sara Wengström. Paper. "Aestheticizing Existence": A Reading of Judith Butler's "What is Critique?"
7. Miri Rozmarin. Paper. "Rethinking agency: on vulnerability as a transformative desire", for your considerations.
8. Petra Lundberg Bouqelon. Paper. I plan to send in a paper on Arendt and her concept of forgiveness in relation to norm critique, and how I work with this i my teaching practice of aesthetic learning.
9. Andrey Belov. Paper. Virginia Wolf through Deleuze and Guattari
10. Oda Davanger. Paper. Feminism's Ethnocentric Problem
11. Laura Hellsten. Paper. Critical thinking, contemplative listening and empathetic knowing.
12. Lára Sigurðardóttir. Paper. Feminism as therapy and education.
13. Simon Opheim. Paper. On linguistic change and the role of philosophy in the works of Sally Haslanger and Richard Rorty
14. Uliana Oblasova. Paper. "The country as a special context in which ideas develop in a certain way. I want to bring light on some major trends concerning feminism and gender inequality questions happened in Russia over recent years.
15. Helgard Mardt. Paper. Reflecting with Arendt on understanding, storytelling, and reconciliation
16. Claudia Schumann. Paper. On Happiness and Critique (Sara Ahmed)
17. Erik Poulsen. Paper. To Desire the Impossible: A Reading of Sophocles' Antigone.
18. Nikole des Bouvrie. Paper. Transformation of Thought: A method of philosophical embodiment
19. Suzy Joseph Ramez Ameen. Paper. The Shame of Protesting and the Honour of Dancing: A Study of the Contestations Regarding Egyptian Women's Political Appearing
20. Ritu Sharma. Paper. "Illocutionary-communicative Silencing; A Defence in Analytic Feminist Philosophy"

21. Sotiria Ismini Gounari. Paper. Feminism in Greece, becoming minor.
Deleuze and Guattari
22. Eva Maria Korsisaari & Virpi Lehtinen. Paper/workshop?? Probably not coming
23. Justine Leitarti
24. Milka Njoroge
25. Nadejda Dermendjjeva
26. Sotiria Gounari
27. Laura Mackay
28. Anne Haglind
29. Camilla Safrankova
30. Laura Brännkärr
31. Ramon Bloomberg
32. Charlotta Lund
33. Björn Jónsson
34. Katrín Pálmadóttir
35. Ilona Silvola.
36. Marianne Lind
37. Niloofar Shahinnia
38. Alba Lafarga
39. Rebecka Fingalson